Laurel Hill Crochet Hooks

Beautifully handcrafted and shaped, these crochet hooks are smooth to the touch and will become true heirlooms. They can be purchased individually in sizes ranging from D/3 (3.25 mm) to M/13 (9 mm) or as a complete set protected in a fabric carrying case. All crochet hooks are available in nam oc, trai, and ebony woods. Laurel Hill also offers 10-inch Tunisian crochet hooks from D/3 (3.25 mm) to M/13 (9 mm). Each Tunisian hook is created from forest palmwood, a tropical hardwood, with a lighter, contrasting trai top. www.laurelhillonline.com

Denise Interchangeable Crochet Hooks

If you get really hooked on Tunisian crochet after working some of the projects in this issue, you'll want to invest in this set. It includes twelve individual hooks, sizes F/5 (3.75 mm) to 19 (15 mm); seven cord lengths, two each of 3 inch and 5 inch, plus one each 9 inch, 12 inch, and 16 inch; four end buttons; two extenders; and a guide to Tunisian crochet produced by Interweave. If you already have the Denise Interchangeable Knitting Needle Set, you can buy hooks separately to use with the cords in that set. And for knitters, the hook with extension is a great way to pick up stitches along an edge of knitting. You can also purchase separate hooks to use for double-ended crochet. The hook attachments are long enough to use for regular crochet as well. The plastic hooks are more flexible than wood or aluminum, but after a bit of crocheting, they will feel quite natural. www.knitdenise.com

Purrfectly Catchy Sock Blockers

Each sock blocker is individually handcrafted of solid oak and a beautiful way to block your next sock project. Among the many cutout designs—spinning wheel, alpaca, dog breeds, maple leaf, monkey, or initials, to name a few—you're sure to find the one that perfectly fits your personality or one that would make the perfect gift. Try them out with the Adirondack Socks from Fall 2009 (pictured here), the Rib & Fan Socks from Spring 2009, or the Troubador Socks: Chrétien de Troyes from Spring 2008. www.purrfectlycatchydesigns.com
